Hotel Le Saint Paul

Saint Paul de Vence, Riviera

On a winding street in the tiny medieval village of Saint-Paul-de-Vence – famous for its many art galleries – is this authentic 16th century dry-stone mansion. The elegant rooms have ancient tomette tiled floors and are decorated with silky fabrics and four poster beds. The hotel has an intimate, warm atmosphere and an open-air restaurant where you can enjoy both the delectable Provençal food and warm southern sun. ☎ 0033 (0) 4 93 32 65 25 www.lesaintpaul.com

Grand Hôtel Montespan Talleyrand et Logis de Sévigné

Bourbon l'Archambault, Allier, Auvergne

The name itself recalls the days when Bourbon l'Archambault was the favoured spa of European nobility. The charm and style of those days remembered lives on in this elegant private hotel. There are: shady inner gardens; a bridge parlour; rooms with a view of the chateau; a heated swimming-pool. Plus of course fine dining in the restaurant. A heated passageway connects direct to the spa. This is the perfect setting from which to explore the bourbonnais region on the edge of Auvergne, a land of history, nature and well-being! ☎ 00 33 4 70 67 00 24 www.hotel-montespan.com

Le Dormeur du Val

Charleville-Mézières, Champagne-Ardenne

Once an industrial building of 800m2, now a really unusual and stylish 17 room hotel. The decor uses modern and retro modern materials as well as some antique furnishings which have been totally transformed. There's a gym, a relaxation area, a bar, a library and indoor gardens. The style may not be to everyone's taste but it is a place to stay that is truly different and from which to explore the historic town of Charleville-Mézières once the home of famous poet, Arthur Rimbaud.

Galerie Huit

Arles, Provence

A beautiful 17th century house gallery in the historic centre of Arles. In each of the five luxurious bedrooms art work is displayed from previous or future exhibitions. Work includes top-quality photography, paintings and sculpture, all blending harmoniously with antique furnishings, marble fireplaces and ancient terracotta floors. Breakfast is served in a magnificent Arlesian kitchen, surrounded by local ceramics and gleaming copper pots. You can relax a while in the plant-filled courtyard and, at the end of a busy day having fun, enjoy a cocktail or two in the magical panelled and gilded print-room. Self-catering apartments are also available.
